

Professor and education activist

Pauline Lipman

The assault on public education: What's behind it and how do we respond?

School Without Walls

480 Broadway, Rochester. NY

7:00 pm, Tuesday, November 9th

Free and open to the public

For the past decade Lipman has collaborated with parents and teachers to resist and overturn education and community policies in Chicago that diminish teachers and disenfranchise community members. She is a professor of Educational Policy Studies and Director of the Collaborative for Equity and Justice in Education at University of Illinois-Chicago. Her forthcoming book is: The new political economy of urban education: Neoliberalism, race, and the right to the city.

Sponsored by the Coalition for Common Sense in Education and the Warner Graduate School of Education, U of Rochester.

For more information, contact David Hursh, Warner School, University of Rochester (dhursh@warner.rochester.edu)